Know that the law of California strongly enforces legal liability waivers involving "dangerous activities", which given what DBMA is about, is certainly the case here! ALL activities with DBMAA are governed by the following: "No suing no one for no reason for nothing no how no way. Only you are responsible for you, so protect yourself at all times."

Please have clear in you mind, words and deeds the distinction between:

- 1) The Dog Brothers (DB) who are a band of sweaty, smelly psychopaths with sticks founded by Marc "Crafty Dog" Denny, Erik "Top Dog" Knaus and Arlan "Salty Dog" Sanford,
- 2) Dog Brothers Martial Arts (DBMA) which is the "System of many styles" founded by Guro Marc "Crafty Dog" Denny.
- 3) Dog Brothers Inc. Martial Arts (DBIMA) which is the corporation through which Guro Crafty does business. This excludes all DBMA teachers and DBMA instructors. All other teachers and instructors are separate legal entities and you agree that DBIMA (Marc) has no legal responsibility for them.
- 4) The Dog Brothers Martial Arts Association (DBMAA) which is a voluntary association of like-minded individuals hosted by DBIMA.

Legal Stuff: We're a corporation. No suing no one for no reason for nothing no how ho way! California law applies.
